

Short-, Medium-, and Long-Term Strategies and Milestones in Developing Sustainable Vaccine Production Capacity

What are reasonable short-term priorities and strategies?

What are reasonable medium-term priorities and strategies?

What are reasonable long-term priorities and strategies?

What are the three most important investments and/or activities in the next two years to support increasing sustainable influenza vaccine production capacity in developing countries over the next 3 to 15 years?

What are the two most important milestones that need to be achieved by January 2012?

What outcomes or products from this workshop would be most helpful to promote and/or support sustainable influenza vaccine production capacity in developing countries?